

"Young In Heart" Schedule for 2024-2025

September 11 Re-enactors Joe and Dolores McDevitt will take us on a dramatic journey through some of the greatest moments of the American Revolution. Lunch is a covered dish, and an "Everybody's Birthday" celebration with cake provided. No Need to bring dessert. Also bring some school supplies to help a needy child have a successful school year.

October 9 Greg Huber, author and photographer of "The Historic Barns of Southeastern Pennsylvania" will be taking us on a fascinating tour of these wonderful treasures. He is an expert on house and barn architecture and author of two books. Lunch is quiche. Desserts are welcome!

November 13 Our missionary to Ecuador, Ned Farnsworth, returns for an interesting presentation using his many musical, dramatic and speaking skills. Lunch is pizza and salad. Desserts are welcome.

December 11 We will have our annual Christmas meal with ham and all the fixings. Kim Kostival will be our speaker, as she decorates a Christmas tree with ornaments through the years and shares the stories behind each one. Bring Christmas cookies or holiday desserts.

January 8 You will be delighted and amazed by ventriloquist Marian Gehman. She will also be sharing her very moving and inspiring story. Lunch is soup and Bill Field's bread. Desserts are welcome.

February 12 Matthew Dodd will be presenting "Songs and Stories of Valentine's Day". He's a talented musician and entertainer you won't want to miss. We'll provide all the fixings, and you will make your own sandwiches. Desserts are welcome.

March 12 Ben Sewina, from the Pennsylvania Game Commission will be presenting a program on the wild life of southeastern Pa. All you animal and nature lovers will enjoy learning more about the abundance of amazing animals who inhabit our area. Lunch is baked pasta. Desserts are welcome.

April 9 Liz DiVietro, our director of Children's Ministry, will be sharing her personal testimony. Come and enjoy getting to know more about this delightful and important member of our Park Road Family! Lunch is tacos. Desserts are welcome.

May 14 Steve Walker, will sing popular fun songs, from country to celtic, polka to jazz, with guitar, piano, ukulele, and harmonica. It's our annual picnic with hot dogs and barbecue and lots of fun! Side dishes and desserts are welcome!