OPENING PRAYER, in unison,

Heavenly Father, as we read the words of Jesus in Luke 6:17-26, we are challenged to see our world differently. Help us to embrace the blessings of being poor in spirit, hungry for righteousness, and weeping for those who suffer, even when it means facing opposition and hardship. Grant us the courage to love our enemies, do good to those who hate us, and bless those who curse us, knowing that our true reward lies in your kingdom. May we find joy in serving others and living a life that reflects your compassion and grace. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP, responsively

L: May the Lord be with you,

C: And also with you.

L: From the comfort of our Western homes and prosperous lives,

C: We come hungry for a better world for all.

L: In our society divided by power struggles and prejudice,

C: We affirm the power of Your healing love.

L: With the honesty of our doubts and insecurities,

C: We rejoice in Your love for each one of us, seeking your blessing to make us whole. Amen.
