

Reading and prayer 17th June 2021

The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” But not all have obeyed the good news; for Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?” So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ. Romans 10:11-17 Holy and Loving Father, Gracious and full of compassion, who have loved us from the beginning of time, your name is precious to our ears. Give us Holy words to speak in your name. May those who hear recognise your all encompassing love for them, with us, let them, become the beautiful feet of those who bring the good news of Christ Jesus. Amen
